1946, commencing from the date of acceptance of tender.

2. The tenderer should be prepared to abide by the conditions of the agreement. The agreement can be referred to in the Office of the undersigned during working hours.

3. The tenderer will be allowed to vend refreshments, eatables, coffee, tea, etc., etc., in the Refreshment Room. Unless specifically authorised, he cannot sell other articles than those specified above.

4. The meals, refreshments, etc., should be prepared and served by Brahmins.

5. The successful tenderer should equip at his cost the room with high class crockery, vessels, etc., which should be subject to approval by the Loco and Carr Superintendent. These will remain as his property and be removed by him on the termination of the contract.

6. Tenders should be addressed to the Loco and Carr Superintendent, Mysore State Railway, Mysore South, so as to reach that officer not later than 16 hours on 23rd October 1944. Tenders received after this hour and date will be rejected.

7. The tenders should be sent in sealed covers superscribed "Tender for the Contract to work the Canteen and the Indian Refreshment Room at Central Workshops, Mysore South".

8. Each tender should be accompanied by an earnest money of Rs. 100. This earnest money will be returned to the unsuccessful tenderer, and adjusted towards the contract amount in the case of the successful tenderer. If the tenderer fails to act up to the conditions of the tender, the earnest money is liable to be forfeited.

9. The successful tenderer must pay the balance of the amount of his bid if it is over and above his Tender Deposit before commencing the contract and execute the necessary agreement. He must work the Refreshment Room on and from the date of acceptance of his tender.

10. The Railway Administration does not bind itself to accept the highest or any tender nor to assign any reason for the rejection of any tender.
